

Internship Summary Report - Class of 2007
Office of Career Services
June 9, 2006

KGI students were very successful in landing internship opportunities this year. All students had successfully secured internship opportunities on June 12, 2006.

FUNCTIONAL / INDUSTRY AREAS: Internships continue to reflect the diverse interests of the KGI student body both in terms of functional area and industry.

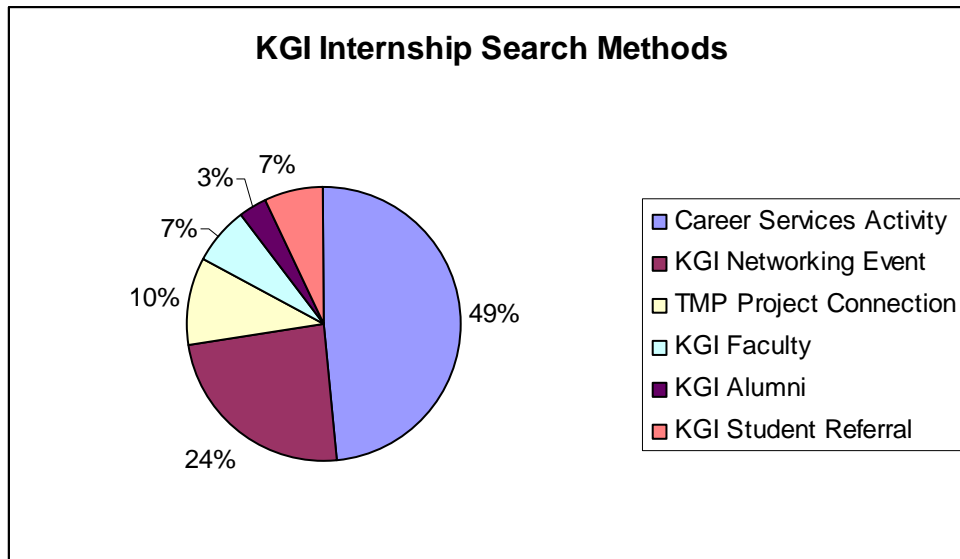

SALARY DATA: Internship salaries were down slightly from prior years with an average of $20.35 / hour. (Standard Deviation = $6.33; Median = 20) The range was broad ($10 - $45) and varied greatly by functional area.

Hourly Salary by Functional Area:

Advertising	***
Business Development	$20.00
Consulting	***
Technology Transfer	***
Manufacturing / Operations	$22.00
Marketing / Market Research	$17.50
Product Management	***
Project Management	***
Regulatory Affairs	$21.55
Research	$20.35
Overall	$20.35

 Too few data points to provide an average

SEARCH METHODS: The primary methodology for finding summer internships was through KGI connections (81%) while the remaining students (19%) found their internships through direct application to the company or through personal connections.

GEOGRAPHY: Students are completing their internships primarily in California but another significant number are located on the East Coast.

