Certificate in Bioscience Industry Law and Practice

APPLICATION CHECKLIST

☐ Online Application Form: Visit www.kgi.edu to complete the online form.

☐ Resume: A resume including your educational background, professional experience, and other relevant information is required.

☐ Personal Statement: In 1,000 words or less please describe how the Certificate in Bioscience Industry Law and Practice program will enhance your future career options and increase your skill set in the life science industry.

☐ One Letter of Recommendation: Contact information for one recommender is required during the online application process. This person should be able to evaluate your qualification and potential for success in our program. You can choose to use a professional or academic reference. Only one recommendation is required but 1-2 additional recommendations are allowable. Recommenders will be contacted via email with a link to submit their recommendation online.